

EAB University Webinar Line-up for Spring 2017

Here is the list of EAB University webinars for this session with the Zoom links to the webinar meeting room the day of the webinar. This information will be posted soon on the <http://emeraldashborer.info/eabu.php> page soon.

Tuesday, February 21, 11 a.m. EDT

"Utilizing Community Street Tree Surveys in an Early Detection Rapid Response Program"

By Tivon Feeley, Forest Health Program Leader, Iowa Dept. of Natural Resources

Go to: <https://msu.zoom.us/j/880635773>

Thursday, March 2, 11 a.m. EDT

"Hemlock Woolly Adelgid in Michigan"

By John Bedford, Michigan Dept. of Agriculture and Rural Development

Go to: <https://msu.zoom.us/j/907136627>

Tuesday, March 7, 11 a.m. EDT

"Biology, Ecology and Management of Ambrosia Beetle Vectors and their Diseases"

By Chris Ranger, USDA ARS Horticultural Insects Research Lab, Wooster, OH

Go to: <https://msu.zoom.us/j/467271961>

Tuesday, March 14, 11 a.m. EDT

"Chemical Control for EAB: What Works, What Doesn't Work, and Why"

By Cliff Sadof, Dept. of Entomology, Purdue University

Go to: <https://msu.zoom.us/j/572674495>

Tuesday, March 21, 11 a.m. EDT

"An Update on Rearing, Releasing and Recovery of EAB Parasitoids"

By Ben Slager, Director of the USDA APHIS Biological Control Rearing Facility, Brighton, MI

<https://msu.zoom.us/j/673906480>

EAB University is a cooperative project by Purdue University, Michigan State University, and Ohio State University, funded and supported by the USDA Forest Service, Forest Health Protection program.