

Agroforestry and Pollinator Web Resources

Conservation Webinar Series – October 23, 2018

Xerces Society

- Xerces Society regional installation guides for pollinator meadows and hedgerows
- Pollinator Conservation Resource Center, where you can find regional information about plant lists, habitat conservation guides, and more
- Farming for Bees: Guidelines for Providing Native Bee Habitat on Farms
- Conserving Bumble Bees

USDA National Agroforestry Center

Some pollinator-specific resources from the USDA National Agroforestry Center:

- AF Note-32: Agroforestry: Sustaining Native Bee Habitat for Crop Pollination
- AF Note-33: Improving Forage for Native Bee Crop Pollinators
- AF Note-34: Enhancing Nest Sites for Native Bee Crop Pollinators
- AF Note- 35 Using Agroforestry Practices to Reduce Pesticide Risks to Pollinators and Other Agriculturally Beneficial Insects
- Inside Agroforestry-Vol23, Issue 2: Learn How You Can Use Agroforestry to Help Pollinators.
- Working Trees Series
- Working Trees for Pollinators
- Working Trees Infosheet: How can agroforestry help pollinators?
- Working Trees Infosheet: How does agroforestry help crop pollination?

Other resources

Agronomy Technical Note No. 9: Preventing or Mitigating Potential Negative Impacts of Pesticides on Pollinators Using Integrated Pest Management and Other Conservation Practices

Woodland Edge Feathering: (The addition of flowering shrubs and forb to woodland edges can have many benefits to pollinators and other wildlife)

Using 2014 Farm Bill Programs for Pollinator Conservation